ANNIVERSARY OF MAY 30TH TRAGEDY

To-day is the Anniversary of May 30th Tragedy. Everybody knows that the Tragedy occurred as a result of the oppression of imperialists in the International Settlement of Shanghai, but the principal cause was the shooting of our labourers by Japanese imperialists.

A number of years have elapsed since the Tragedy occurred. The blood stains of the martyrs on Nanking Road have already gone and the people have become oblivious of the Tragedy. But the imperialists in China have become stronger and stronger. The Mukden Incident of September 18th and the January 28th Event have followed to cause sorrow to the people. No more slogans of "down with imperialism" have been heard. Is this the reason why national humiliations have increased?

Min Sin Jih Pao (明星日报), a mosquito paper, of May 30th.

PALATIAL CENTRAL POLICE STATION

Due to the large annual income of over $20,000,000, the Shanghai Municipal Council is constructing palatial buildings. The Council is now constructing a new Central Police Station on Foochow Road, the site of which occupies ten mow of land (the price of the land in this area is very high). The building will be nine stories high and the equipment of the building will be very up-to-date. Lifts, bath rooms, and the latest sanitary arrangements are provided. The new Central Police Station will be the best equipped Police Station in the Far East. Construction will be completed in 1935 and the constructional fees and expenditure for electrical and other equipment will be $1,000,000. The old and worn out premises of the Bureau of Public Safety of the Shanghai City Government will not bear comparison with the new building.

SUMMARIZED TRANSLATION OF A COMMUNIST HANDBILL ENTITLED "LETTER TO LABOUR, PEASANT AND TOILING MASSES IN CONNECTION WITH THE MAY 30TH TRAGEDY".

To the toiling masses throughout the country,

To-day is the most glorious anniversary of the resistance on the part of the Chinese people to foreign imperialists.

This tragedy arose through the brutal murder on May 14, 1925 of a worker of the Kung Dah No.5 Cotton Mill who had demanded an increase of pay. The imperialists did not content themselves with this incident but perpetrated more tragic outrages, such as: the Shameen Incident, the Tsinan Tragedy, the September 18 Embroglio, the Shanghai Incident of January 28, etc. More recently they have been contemplating a general massacre of the toiling masses with the object of partitioning China.

The submission by the Kuomintang to foreign imperialism has become more evident. Under the leadership of the Chinese Communist Party, it is up to us to arm ourselves and drive away the foreign imperialists, overthrow the traitorous Kuomintang and establish a Soviet New China.

The Chinese Communist Party is now calling upon you to undertake the following tasks:

1) Arm yourselves and revolt against the Kuomintang by refusing to pay the taxes!
2) Oppose the joint control and partitioning of China by the imperialists!
3) Oppose the attack by the imperialistic Kuomintang on the Soviet Union, China's true friend!
4) Struggle for the independence of Soviet New China!

"May 30" Anniversary - Local observance

Local Chinese vernacular papers observe to-day, the Anniversary of the Nanking Road Incident, as a holiday. Consequently there will be no issues to-morrow, May 31.

Hwa Chen Cigarette Factory, 340 Wayside Road.	2,000 hands.

TRANSLATION OF A COMMUNIST HANDBILL ENTITLED "LETTER TO YOUNG MASSES IN CONNECTION WITH THE MAY 30 ANNIVERSARY", DATED MAY 24, 1934, COPIES OF WHICH WERE FOUND BY THE MUNICIPAL POLICE IN GORDON ROAD DISTRICT ON MAY 27, 1934.

To young labourers, peasants, students and other poor youths,

The May 30 Anniversary is again approaching. On May 15, 1925, Koo Tseng Hoong, a worker of the N.W.K. Cotton Mill in Shanghai, was shot and killed by Japanese imperialists. On May 30 the imperialistic British Police on Nanking Road and at other places massacred a number of young labourers, students and citizens who were delivering lectures in support of the N.W.K. strike. Thus was the May 30 tragedy created. The labourers and students in Shanghai, under the leadership of the Chinese Communist Party, went on strike and were joined by merchants who suspended their business. This was an effective response to the atrocities of the Japanese and British imperialists.

The anniversary of the May 30 incident this year finds the Japanese imperialists intensifying their attacks in North China, the British imperialists invading Thibet and Singkiang, the French imperialists taking possession of nine islands in South China and threatening Yunnan, Kweichow and Kwangse, and the American imperialists constructing aerodromes and military bases at Nanking, Hangchow and other places.

The political situation in China has reached a crisis. As a result of a conference held at Nanchang, the national traitors Chiang Kai Shek, Waung Tsing Wei and Huang Fu have accepted all the demands submitted by Japan and the Chinese troops stationed in North China have been transferred to attack the Red Army of labourers and peasants. The traitors have also adopted a system of White Terror to suppress the people's anti-Imperialist and anti-Japanese movements.

Workers in the employ of Japanese cotton mills should continue their struggles in the same spirit displayed in the May 30 incident and declare strikes to oppose the oppression at the hands of Japanese capitalists. B.A.T. workers should unite and protest against the closing down of the Pootung Factory and demand work. Juvenile workers should commemorate the May 30 Anniversary and oppose the oppression by the Kuomintang capitalists. The unemployed should demand work and the issue of relief funds.

Juvenile peasants should oppose the outrageous taxation levied by the Kuomintang and the payment of taxes and revenues. They should start a guerilla warfare and participate in anti-Japanese movements in North China.

Students should commemorate the May 30 Anniversary by going on a general strike to oppose the present slavish education policy of the Kuomintang. In addition, they should organize anti-Japanese associations and demand freedom of speech, publication and assembly.

The following slogans should be used in commemoration of this anniversary:-

1) Declare a general strike and hold processions and demonstrations to commemorate the May 30 Anniversary!
2) Oppose the attack on North China by White imperialists and the capture of "Pang Hong" by British imperialists; let the people arm themselves and drive away the Japanese and British naval, military and air forces fmm China!
3) Oppose the sale of North China by the Kuomintang; transfer all troops throughout the country to North China to fight the Japanese.
4) Overthrow the Japanese, British and other foreign imperialists as well as their running dogs - the Kuomintang.
5) Support the Soviet Red Army; annihilate the bandit suppression campaign of the imperialistic Kuomintang!
6) Long live the independence and emancipation of the Chinese race!

SUMMARISED TRANSLATION OF A COMMUNIST HANDBILL ENTITLED "MANIFESTO IN COMMEMORATION OF THE MAY 30 TRAGEDY", DATED MAY 25, WHICH WAS OBTAINED BY THE MUNICIPAL POLICE IN WESTERN CHAPEI ON MAY 27, 1934.

To the dear female labouring masses,

On May 30, 1926 (? 1925) the toiling masses in Shanghai shed their blood and the workers of various cotton mills declared a general strike to oppose the oppression by the capitalists. Owing to the unity and undaunted spirit of the workers, the capitalists began to quiver and accepted the demands of the workers for increase of wages and a reduction of working hours, but the workers insisted on liberty and equality.

The anniversary of the May 30 Tragedy is fast approaching. The labouring masses have to work long hours at 3 day or 5 day shifts and endure oppression and abuse. All the labourers are complaining of the hardships and of the treachery and oppression of the capitalists.

Labour friends, unite and observe the following slogans:-

Oppose capitalists and overthrow the Japanese dwarfs!

Restore the former system of work and overthrow the running dogs in factories.

Oppose the 3 day and 5 day shifts.

Oppose the deceit of capitalists and the dismissal of workers.

Welcome the labouring masses and commemorate the May 30 Anniversary.

Support the Soviet Union. Long live the Soviet Union.

Dear labour and poor masses,

The May 30th Anniversary is approaching. On May 30, 1925 all workers in the Eastern and Western Districts of Shanghai went on a general strike to oppose the capitalists and the imperialists.

The Mayar Silk Factory workers declared a strike in March and carried on until the beginning of May, with successful results. We should follow their example in our struggles against oppression by Japanese and other capitalists. Let us hold demonstrations and submit the following demands on the occasion of the May 30th Anniversary this year :-

(1) Oppose the dismissal and abuse of workers!

(2) Oppose an increase in the number of working hours and a decrease of pay!

(3) Full pay for Sundays and medical allowances in case of sickness!

(4) Full pay and bonuses for female workers during the period of childbirth.

(5) Let us support the national salvation and anti-Japanese movement of the poor and labour masses, and celebrate the victories of the Red Armies.

The local Kuomintang has decided not to convene any meeting in observance of the Anniversary of the Nanking Road Incident which falls on May 30, nor will the Chinese official organs, public bodies, educational institutions and industrial concerns observe the occasion as a holiday.

ANNIVERSARY OF MAY 30TH INCIDENT

It is nine years since the May 30th Tragedy occurred. We feel very sad when we think of that year and our condition today; and we submit a few remarks on the occasion of the anniversary:

Since the industrial revolution in Europe, imperialist countries have become stronger and stronger and with a view to extending markets for their products, have invaded other countries. As a consequence, the two American Continents as well as Australia and Africa were divided among the imperialists. In the end, they sought markets in China. Following the Opium War of 1840 the Imperialists have become more oppressive towards China. In addition to bringing pressure to bear on China politically, the imperialists have employed economic means to oppress China. The demanding of indemnities, the appropriation of territory and the contracting of unequal treaties have followed. Inspite of the fact that rural China has become bankrupt and China's industries are in a deplorable condition as a result of their invasion, the imperialists have become more insolent towards China until the May 30th Tragedy occurred when an antagonistic attitude towards imperialists was assumed by the people of the country. Therefore, the May 30th Tragedy on one hand was an expose of the machinationsof the imperialists and on the other hand was the awakening of the Chinese from slumber.

The causes of the May 30th Tragedy are as mentioned, therefore, the slogans employed are the abrogation of unequal treaties, the restoration of Customs autonomy, the withdrawal of foreign land and naval forces from China, the retrocession of leased territory and the cancellation of concessions and settlements. The effect of the anti-imperialist movement was far-reaching. In Shanghai alone, the number of students, workmen, and merchants on strike amounted to 300,000, an epoch making episode in the history of China. The anti-imperialist movement was followed by a strike in Canton and Hongkong of seamen lasting for a period of nineteen months. As a result, the truculent attitude of the imperialists towards China was modified and the Northern Military Expedition under the command of General Chiang Kai-shek succeeded. The May 30th Tragedy can be called an act of brutality of the imperialis as well as an awakening of China's national consciousness.

Although the Chinese people have not been slack in the movement against imperialists since the enactment of the May 30th Tragedy, the imperialists have continued to be aggressive towards China. The Mukden Incident of September 1 and the Pronouncement of April 17th are the manifestations of Japanese Imperialism. The situation of to-day is far more serious than that of nine years ago.

On the occasion of the Anniversary of the May 3 Tragedy, we should continue to show the spirit of that year in order to remove the national humiliations and save our rac from extinction.

Precautionary Measures On May 30 Anniversary Day

To-day is the 9th Anniversary of the Nanking Road "May 30th Tragedy".

Fearing that the reactionary elements may create trouble, the Woosung-Shanghai Garrison Commander's Headquarters, the Peace Preservation Corps, the Bureau of Public Safety and the District Peace Protection Committee have instructed their subordinate organs to adopt special precautionary measures for one day. Police patrols, detectives, and search parties will be on duty at the various important sections of the district. In factory zones, school areas and places near the Settlement boundary, extra police will be on duty. Search parties will operate on the streets, and illegal meetings and processions will be prohibited. Similar precautionary measures will be adopted in the Settlement and the Concession. The joint precautionary measures for the month of May will be end on the day after to-morrow.

No newspapers will be published and flags will be flown at half-mast to-day.

The Board of Directors and Manifesto

The Board of Directors of the May 30th Martyrs Cemetery will offer a sacrifice at 9 a.m. to-day. A manifesto will be published, the gist of which is as follows:-

"At 2 p.m. on May 30th nine years ago, a great tragedy occurred on Nanking Road in front of Louza Station. In memory of this tragedy, our Board hereby observes this 9th Anniversary especially at the time when the four North-Eastern Provinces are occupied by the Japanese.

"The tragedy followed upon a dispute in a Japanese Mill. Thirteen demands were made by the Chinese Government, some of them were granted, and some of them shelved. The following comments will be appropriate.

1. The abolition of the Mixed Court has been accomplished, the integrity of a greater part of the Chinese judicial rights has been preserved, and Chinese law students are enabled to advance in their profession.
2. The addition of Chinese members to the S.M.C. has given our people the opportunity to share in the administration of the Settlement. However we will continue to strive with a view to obtaining a greater share in the Municipal Administration.
3. Although the contruction of extra-Settlement roads has ceased, the negotiations for the restoration of the rights on the roads have been obstructed by the Japanese.

"The S.M.C.'s attempt to revise Article 34 of the Bye-laws was a supplementary cause of the May 30th Tragety. Last year the Foreign Ratepayers Association passed a resolution to revise Article 34. It was fortunate that the Chinese Ratepayers Association passed a resolution against the revision, which supplied the Chinese Government with an important basis for negotiations. The Chinese race is peace-loving. Unless we are oppressed, there will be no blood-shed. Although we have suffered for several years, we make only peaceful requests. We observe peace and order in times of difficulty. If we were Fascists, there would be bloodshed. The incident could not be closed with the slaughter of unarmed students and labourers. Following the May 30th Tragedy, there came the Shameen Incident, and the Northern Punitive Expedition. We love peace, but we shall do our utmost to secure freedom for our people, the restoration of our rights and the integrity of our territory until we have the same rights as other nations."

May 30, 1934. Morning Translation

The local First Special District Citizens Federation yesterday issued a circular notice to its members requesting them to detail representatives to participate in the ceremony at 9 a.m. to-day. The various shops were requested to hoist flags at half-mast.

Charge Against Yu Ya Ching.

The families of the victims of the May 30 Tragedy some time ago found that Yu Ya Ching (虞洽卿), Zung Sih Chun (成宗春), Hu Zang Sung (胡長生) and Chen Poo Zah (陳甫才) had embezzled the compassionate grants of $150,000 issued by the Shanghai Municipal Council in January 1930 to the families of the victims. Negotiations regarding the case for the past several years have had no result.

Recently Yien Chun Ding (顏春[illegible]), Chen Lih Tuh (陳烈德), Hwa Tsoong Hai (華宗海), Chang Yoeh Tseu (張月秋) and Tsai Dau Chun (蔡道春), families of the victims of the May 30 Tragedy, retained lawyer Ma Chuin Shih (馬君碩) and filed a charge in the 1st Special District Court, requesting that the accounts kept by Yu Ya Ching for the distribution of the compassionate grants be audited. The case was dismissed by the Court. The families of the victims have filed an appeal to the 2nd Kiangsu High Court.

On May 29 the families of the victims of the May 30 Tragedy called at the Shanghai City Government and submitted the following appeal:-

Yien Tsoong Ping (顏宗炳), son of Yien Chun Ding, Hwa Tsoong Yuin (華宗永), elder brother of Hwa Tsoong Hai and Chen Shing Fah (陳兴發), younger brother of Chen Lih Tuh lost their lives during the May 30 Tragedy, while Chang Yoeh Tseu and Tsai Dau Chun were seriously wounded. Despite the fact that several thousand dollars were contributed by public bodies in the country and overseas Chinese to relieve the families of the victims, yet the latter have not received a single cent. In January 1930, the S.M.C. handed to Yu Ya Ching, Zung Sih Chun and others compassionate grants of $150,000 for distribution to the wounded martyrs as well as the families of the victims of the May 30 Tragedy. Unexpectedly Yu Ya Ching and Zung Sih Chun have submitted false accounts and illegally detained these compassionate grants that should have been issued to the families of the victims.

(1) Yu Ya Ching deducted $35,000 from the amount of the compassionate grants to repay the money he had advanced. What was the money advanced and how was it spent? When did he advance the money and has he any proof to support the claim that he had advanced it. The families of the victims did not borrow a single cent from him and therefore the statement of advancing money is a false report.

(2) Zung Sih Chun says that he paid $10,000 from the amount of the compassionate grants to repay the loan contracted for the construction of the May 30 Martyrs Cemetery and that he paid in advance $10,000 for the construction of the same. The Martyrs Cemetery was built as a token of respect to the martyrs by the Government and the expenses for the Cemetery should not be paid by the families of the martyrs. However, Zung Sih Chun deducted the money from the compassionate grants. Furthermore, no detailed accounts have been publish regarding the expenses of the Cemetery and Zung cannot produc evidence that he had the expenses.

May 30, 1934. Morning Translation.

(3) Yu Ya Ching says that he advanced $2,825 to meet the expenses of the May 30 Tragedy Martyrs Families Association. It will be remembered that the Association was first established in April 1929 in the Hwa Yuen Tea Shop (華園茶樓), West Gate, and later removed to the premises of the Min Jeu Primary School (敏求小学), West Gate. No rentals were paid for the above premises. There was only a secretary working for the Association. Expenditure incurred for sundry expenses were small and the sum Yu Ya Ching claimed to have advanced is exaggerated.

(4) Under the false name of the former Chamber of Commerce, Yu Ya Ching claims that he paid $1,710 advanced by the Chamber to meet the expenses of the families of the victims during the past years. This is simply a ruse of Yu Ya Ching, Zung Sih Chun and Hu Zang Sung and the families of the victims did not use a single cent. If it is true that Hu Zang Sung and Chen Poo Zah borrowed money, the money should be repaid by themselves and should not be deducted from the amount of the compassionate grants.

(5) There still remains $12,800 of the compassionate grants according to Yu Ya Ching himself. The interest on this remaining sum will have accumulated since 1930. However, Yu Ya Ching has not given the name of the bank in which the money is deposited. He kept the sum on the pretext that he feared there were still some more families of the victims who had not yet received grants. But there is no reason why these families would not come forward. to receive their grants. Furthermore, the period of six months granted to the families of victims to submit claims has already expired and it is unreasonable that Yu Ya Ching should arbitrarily detain this remaining sum.

(6) According to the report of a chartered accountant, Chiang Hsin Chao (蔣信昭), engaged by the "May 30th" Board of Directors, 55 grants were made to the wounded martyrs and the families of the deceased, and the sum distributed was $74,450. But if $2,000 was distributed to each family and $500 to each of the wounded, the total sum paid out was $6,300. What of the remaining $10,000?

(7) Apart from the misappropriation, the method of distribution of the grants by Yu Ya Ching was unjust. The family of Fu Yuan Pao (傅元豹) received a sum of $3,500 while the families of Yien Chun Ding and others obtained $2,000 each, less half per cent as tax. Hu Zang Sung and Chen Poo Zah, two of the wounded, who had special connection with Yu Ya Ching, received $5,000.

Chen Teh Mei (陳鐵梅) retained a lawyer to open negotiations with Yu Ya Ching and in consequence, he received an additional sum of $900, besides accepting the sum of $500, while Hoong Chun (洪春) and others received $500 only. Therefore, the injustice of Yu Ya Ching is obvious.

From the points mentioned, the misappropriation of "May 30th" compassionate grants by Yu Ya Ching and others is disclosed. Yien Chun Ding and other victims have opened negotiations with Yu Ya Ching, but without result. Recently, they retained a lawyer and instituted legal proceedings at the First Special District Court to investigate the accounts. At the request of the other party, Judge Chwang Ching Yuan (章慶淵) dismissed the appeal of the victims. on the ground
